

Julia Mariko Jacoby – Curriculum Vitae

Education

- 10/2004-07/2013      “Magister Artium” (Master) at University of Freiburg, Germany
Major: Modern History
Minors: Geology and Latin
Thesis: “Catastrophe as a media event: The Great Kantô Earthquake of 1923 in contemporary magazines”
Thesis advisor: Prof. Dr. Sabine Dabringhaus
- 10/2011                Fieldwork in Japan supported by DAAD PROMOS scholarship at the University of Osaka and the National Diet Library
- 10/2006-04/2013      Staatsexamen (State examination for teachers) at University of Freiburg
Majors: History and Latin
- 09/2007-08/2008      Study Abroad at Ritsumeikan University in Kyoto, Japan
Holder of a scholarship provided by the land of Baden-Württemberg (Baden-Württemberg-Stipendium)
Study Abroad Programme “Study in Kyoto” (SKP)

Professional Experience

- 01/2014-09/2014      Research associate and lecturer (Wissenschaftliche Mitarbeiterin), Chair of East Asian History, University of Freiburg
- 11/2011-03/2014      Guide at the “Uniseum” (Museum of the University of Freiburg)
- 02/2011-04/2011      Translator for the Graduate School Project “Conflict & Contestation: Cultural and Historical Perspectives on Human Interaction” at University of Freiburg
- 01/2010-04/2010      Intern at Buchenwald Concentration Camp Memorial
- 09/2009-12/2009      Intern at the Martin-Schongauer-Gymnasium Breisach (High school of Breisach)
- 01/2008-05/2008      Intern for Isaka Nobuhiko, city assemblyman of Kobe (now House of Representatives), Japan
- 01/2007-07/2007      Research Assistant to Prof. Dr. Bernd Martin, former Chair of Non-European History, University of Freiburg

Language Proficiencies

- Native:                German, Japanese (JLPT Level 1)
Fluent:                English, Latin, French
Basic:                 Ancient Greek (Graecum), Korean, Russian, Italian